JOIN A SMALL GROUP TRAVELLING TO INDIA FROM GINGER GARLIC

Home to a billion people and visited by countless travellers, India... a country which enchants you with her beauty and diversity, delights you with her colorful pageantry, enriches you with her culture, stuns you with her modernity, embraces you with her warmth, and overwhelms you with her hospitality.

Since 1992, GINGER GARLIC in Eltham, has been, and continues to, serve 'CUSINES FROM INDIA' introducing you to a variety of theme nights and dishes from across the country, like no other.

Annually, for the last few years we have been forming small groups and accompany them to India, a visit that gives you 'TRUE TASTE OF INDIA'.

REVIEWS & COMMENTS

“Ginger Garlic’s cosy dining room, dominated by large Moghul Court paintings and the elephant headed god Ganesh, might be lost in a mini arcade off Eltham’s Dudley Street, but locals have been trooping here since 1992”
MATT PRESTON

“In a suburb better known for its mud-brick houses than a haven for foodies, Ginger Garlic is an Eltham Institution.” “Ginger Garlic has been delighting Eltham locals for 19 years as well as drawing customers from much afar.” “ A swag of local business awards and accolades from food critics are just the start. I can’t think of another restaurant that takes its regulars on a food tour of India....”
THE WEEKLY REVIEW

“With its vibrant setting and extensive menu, with dishes from far-flung corners of India, the pungent aromas of curries draws patrons to Ginger Garlic.” “Owners Ashok & Ritu welcome those who worship Indian cuisine, as well as those who have yet to experience it, to a foodie trip to India....”
BANYULE & NILLUMBIK WEEKLY

“Grab your guidebook and pack your passport. From an unassuming corner of Eltham Coles car park, Ginger Garlic whirls you through a subcontinent-sized menu. Your tour guides are the warm, gracious owners-who also run bi-annual tours to India” “
BEST IN ITS CLASS”
THE AGE, CHEAP EATS GUIDE

“innovations earn GINGER GARLIC much praise and many loyal patrons”
LONELY PLANET, OUT TO EAT.

“A Suburban Eatery that stands out from the crowd.”
THE AGE.

“In the heart of leafy Eltham and far removed from the hustle & bustle of Punjab, Ginger Garlic is not your average Indian Eatery. The food is as diverse & eclectic as India itself. The owners....will soon take a group of Ginger Garlic regulars on a tour to India, complete with games of polo on elephant back, moonlit banquets in sand dunes and staying in palaces, to get a true “Taste of India”.
Melbourne Weekly East Dis.

“Do you dress up in eighties garb or as Captain Stubbing from The Love Boat? At tiny, elegant GG ‘Theme Night’ means a rolling list of tailored menus”
